Lent 2010 – Mission & Evangelisation

Our fifth year of Come & See focuses on the theme of Mission & Evangelisation under the title Go Make Disciples. Look out for articles about Come & See in the Catholic Post or visit www.comeandsee.org.uk.

During this fifth year of Come & See, our diocesan process for renewal, we are focusing on Mission & Evangelisation under the title Go Make Disciples. Look out for details of events in your area this Lent.

Come & See is a process for renewal for the parishes and schools of our diocese. It began in Advent 2005. In this fifth year the theme is Go Make Disciples and asks us to explore what it means to be people who share faith with others through words and actions. What can you do to bring this theme to life this Lent?

Year 5 of Come & See, our diocesan process for renewal, focuses on the theme of Mission & Evangelisation and invites us to Go Make Disciples. Who influenced and inspired you on your journey of faith? Who can you share faith with this Lent?

Will you be joining a study group, a prayer group, or a lectio divina/gospel sharing group this Lent? Will you be sharing the Church's journey towards Holy Week by taking part in Lent prayers and devotions? How will Lent 2010 be a time of spiritual renewal for you?

On the first Sunday of Advent 2005 our diocese began a five-year process for renewal called Come & See. In Advent 2009 we began Year 5, focusing on Mission & Evangelisation – Go Make Disciples. Look out for details of events connected with this during Lent 2010 in your parish and deanery.
