Drawing from our Catholic tradition and from contemporary research we have helped prepare around 3,000 couples for marriage in the last year. 'Preparing Together' is a one day course for up to 10 couples. It covers relationships, problem solving and communication skills, what you want and hope to give in your marriage and concludes with an opportunity to reflect on the vows you will exchange and the sacrament of marriage. The format is presentations, group discussion and the couple talking together. The course recently received Cardinal Nichols' imprimatur. On completion you can obtain a certificate of attendance to give to your priest.
