

Vision and Aims

FAMILIAS recognises that marriage and family life have a specific God given purpose in the lives of individuals, society and the Church. Through the ministry of its members FAMILIAS aims to support, nourish and sustain families whatever their circumstances.

FAMILIAS was established in 2008 to:

- Share good practice and make resources more widely available
- Connect and care for coordinators by providing peer support, ongoing training and formation
- Advocate for families and Family Life Ministry by collaborating with other organisations and bringing concerns to the attention of the Committee for Marriage and Family Life
- Advise and serve by responding to issues raised through the Committee for Marriage and Family Life and promoting the work of Diocesan Marriage and Family Life Coordinators

Diocesan Family Life Ministry

Within dioceses the exact role of the marriage and family life ministry coordinator varies, as do working conditions, salary scale, and structures of line management and accountability. Nevertheless FAMILIAS understands the role of the Diocesan Coordinator of Family Life Ministry to be at least that accepted by the Bishops' Conference in 1994, that is:

- caring for, supporting and promoting all areas of family life; offering pastoral support to all - clergy and laity - involved in the work of affirming marriage, family life and the parish family
- providing information and resources in family matters for all parishioners and clergy
- organizing training opportunities and coordinating lay involvement
- acting as a link with existing diocesan agencies to support families with a particular need
- strengthening ecumenical links enabling cooperation with other Christian Churches at appropriate diocesan and parish level and where possible offering joint programmes.

Origins of FAMILIAS

Diocesan coordinators had enjoyed an ad-hoc association for a number of years, meeting twice annually at national gatherings and in regional meetings. However in 2006 following the outcomes of Listening 2004 : My Family My Church and a renewed focus on marriage and family life ministry within the Catholic Church in England and Wales coordinators decided to formally organise themselves as an Association.

FAMILIAS business is conducted during the regular cycle of national and regional meetings which take place. Online registration and the contact details of FAMILIAS Steering Group members are available on the website.

FAMILIAS is supported by the Marriage and Family Life Office of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of England & Wales, 39 Eccleston Square, London SW1V 1BX
