We put a high value on all our work with children, young people and vulnerable adults. We want to ensure that you know the resources and support available to you. We intend that you should not work unsupported or unsupervised.

The particular responsibilities of your role have been discussed with you in detail. Any further questions that arise from time to time can be discussed either with your designated support person or with the leader of your group.

We want to help give you the best possible service to your group, so we will meet with you to talk about your work with children, young people and vulnerable adults. We will discuss your training needs with you, and we will give you opportunities to develop your skills.
