

LEEDS INTERNATIONAL ORGAN FESTIVAL

Leeds Cathedral: 1.15–2.00 pm

- 12 May Benjamin Saunders and Louise Wayman
- 19 May Claudia Grinnell
- 2 June David Pipe
part of RCO's Play the Organ Year 2025
- 9 June Paolo Oreni
- 16 June Thomas Leech
- 23 June William Campbell
- 30 June Imogen Morgan
- 7 July Charles Francis
- 14 July Frankie Tempest

OTHER 2025 EVENTS

FREE ADMISSION, UNLESS OTHERWISE STATED

21 May, 6 pm Keyboard Studies Programme Concert

Leeds International Organ Festival welcomes students from the Diocese of Leeds Keyboard Studies Programme, who will perform on the accordion, piano and organ in this free annual celebratory concert at Leeds Cathedral.

15 June, 2–4 pm Brush Up Your Keyboard Skills

Ben Saunders, Director of Music for the Diocese of Leeds, leads a workshop for parish musicians at St Stephen's Church in Skipton. This session is for those accompanying the liturgy in parishes on the organ to meet together and share, with each participant invited to bring a liturgical accompaniment, hymn or piece of organ music they would like to work on. The session will be relaxed, informal and all are welcome – observers too!

22 June, 2.30 pm Diocese of Leeds Girls Choir Festival Concert

29 June, 2.30 pm Diocese of Leeds Boys Choir Festival Concert

Join us in a Cathedral packed with enthusiastic young singers and their families for the annual spectacle of our Diocese of Leeds Boys and Girls Choir Festivals. All choirs will sing in a free public concert at 2.30 pm.

Leeds International Organ Festival relies on the generosity of our loyal audience. You can support our wonderful series into the future, allowing people from West Yorkshire and beyond to hear some of the world's finest and most exciting players.

Visit dolmusic.uk/support-liof to give today.

